

Session Six

Mr. Bruno Demeyere

Legal Advisor, International Committee of the Red Cross, Geneva Headquarters

Mr Bruno Demeyere is a Belgium national born in 1980.

Mr Bruno Demeyere holds a Masters of Law from the Harvard Law School (2004), A Law Degree from the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium (2003), a Bachelor degree in law from Facultés Universitaires Notre-Dame de la Paix, Namur, Belgium (2002) and a University Degree in International Nuclear Law, University of Montpellier, France, 2005.

Mr Bruno Demeyere joined the ICRC Legal Division in 2011 and was tasked with leading the Project relating to the Updating of the ICRC Commentaries on the Geneva Convention.

Prior to his joining the ICRC, Mr Demeyere held the following positions:

- o 2006-2011: Program on Humanitarian Policy and Conflict Research, Harvard University, USA Advisor on International Humanitarian Law
- o 2004-2011: Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium Teaching assistant and lecturer in public international law
- o 2004-2006: Brussels Bar, Belgium Attorney at Law