

IQRAM CUTTILAN
THE CHAIRMAN OF THE CEYLON ASSOCIATION OF SHIPPING AGENTS (CASA)

Iqram Cuttilan is the Chairman of the Ceylon Association of Shipping Agents (CASA) having being elected to this position in July this year.

He is the Managing Director/ CEO of the Aitken Spence Maritime sector. The maritime sector covers the Shipping Agency, Port Management and the Maritime Education areas.

Aitken Spence was the first Sri Lankan company to venture overseas in the port management field. They were also the First Sri Lankan company to be involved in a Public Private partnership overseas.

Mr Cuttilan was involved in the setting up of the port management business in Africa and Fiji and serves as a Director of Fiji Ports Terminal Limited and Fiji Ports Corporation Ltd.

Mr. Cuttilan currently serves as a member of the Advisory Committee on Logistics of the Export Development Board.